

Two premium whiskies launched by Kaya Blenders

Kaya Blenders and Distillers Ltd recently launched two of its premium products- Old Professor and Minister's Reserve at Hotel Swissotel in Kolkata. The launch event attended by the CMD of Kaya Blenders, Karun Kaura, Director Mitin Pattnaik and the Regional Director Subir Ghosh beside 200 liquor dealers and distributors.

"The rich taste of the whisky with surprising and robust notes that are the signature of Kaya. It would appeal to everyone ranging from those who have developed a robust taste palate and to the adventurers who love to experiment. The delicate taste that fills in the mouth with each sip is pure and authentic," says company's press release.

The products, according to the release are developed after careful research by a strong team that believes in providing an enthralling experience to its customers. The CMD of the Kaya Spirits Karun Kaura who never compromises on the quality, believes in employing the best means to create a market for the company and its products.

"Kaya Spirits uses modern machinery, best in-house technology & techniques in creating unique blends that are a result of years of research and pioneering vision of the founders. Matching up to its exquisite taste is the attractive packaging that meets international standards. The wide range of products developed by the company has been able to create a market for themselves owing to their quality and excellent tastes," shares the release.

Kaya Blenders has already made its presence in more than 15 states of the country and are taking significant strides to market its products across the nation.

Kaya Blenders is internationally acclaimed for the unmatched quality of its products.

